

I'll Take Lonely Tonight

(Transcribed by Benjamin Ball)

Tim Minchin

$\text{♩} = 140$

Piano

I'll take lo - nely to-night your o-ffer is kind

5

Pno.

and I must con-fess that I find your 9

Pno.

ca-sual ca-re - sses and that pre-tty dress pre-tty hard to re-sist and

13

Christ what a night I think you're pre-tty high I know I'm pre-tty pissed

Pno.

17

I'll take lo - nely to-night though I'm not de - ny -

Pno.

21

- ing I hate being a-lone e - ven so

Pno.

25

I know re-gret in the ma - king you're one of those o-thers I

Pno.

28

swore I'd for-sake and al - though this ex - tra - ction is ta - king a great deal of will

Pno.

32

I got a girl has my heart in a house on a hill so though I am

Pno.

37

hun - gry and tem - pted I'm so - rry I'm not going to bite I'm gonna take lo - nely

Pno.

41

I'll take

Pno.

46

lo - nely to-night though I know I might we - ll have

Pno.

50

fu - ture re-grets that I di - dn't more of-ten take up these cha -

Pno.

54

- nces for what is life for but toshag drink and dance andtee - na - ger

Pno.

57

me wouldbe screa-ming hispants off be-ggingme to st-ay but my

Pno.

61

girl has my heart in a house half a pla - net a-way and I'd ra-ther

Pno.

65

mu-der than hurt her so so-rry though it fee - ls so ri - ght I'm go-nnatake lo-nely

Pno.

69

to-night O-

Pno.

73

dy-sseu - s wa - sn't strong e-nough to en - dure the Si - rensong and so he made his sai-lors tie him to a mast and Je-sus spent for-ty days and for-ty nights and he

Pno.

75

Pno.

78

stood his ground and he fought his fight and the de-vil tried but coul-dn't break his

Pno.

80

fast if this is true the de-vil should have o-ffered him you Go-ddamm-it

Pno.

85

I'll take lo-nely to-night in my three-point-five sta-r Bou-tique hotel where I will spend twe-nty-five bucks on mi-ni-bar snacks and pass

Pno. mp

91

Pno.

95

out on my phone and wake in four hours or so soaked in re-lief to find

Pno.

99

I am a-lone with o- nly the wra-ppers of pri-ngles and sni-ckers for

Pno.

103

which to a- tone bli- ssfu-lly lo- nely

Pno.